

Evening Seminar

Career Transition - What now?

Delivered by
Rosaleen McNeil,
Director of Scientia Career Consulting Ltd

The event will provide guidance for people who are considering or facing a career transition, in mobilising themselves for the current life science job market.

Wednesday 15 July, 2009

Sir Charles Wilson Building, 1 University Avenue

This event is free, however, places are limited.
To reserve your place, please complete an on-line registration at www.nexxusscotland.com/events

nexxus

Evening Seminar

This workshop will be delivered by Rosaleen McNeil of Scientia Career Consulting Ltd - a Career Management Service dedicated to the provision of a range of flexible coaching and counselling services to Scientists and Engineers.

The event will provide guidance for people who are considering or facing a career transition, in mobilising themselves for the current life science job market.

Topics to be covered will include:

- Cognisance of the current job market
- The need to be self-aware of one's motivation and ambitions
- Self-assessment of personal and professional skills set to identify transferable skills
- Job search strategies
- Importance of networking
- Self marketing techniques

Programme

Registration / Tea and Coffee

6.00 - 6.30pm

Career Transition - What Now?

6.30 - 7.15pm

Rosaleen McNeil, Director, Scientia Career Consulting Ltd.

A life scientist by training, Rosaleen has since accrued over 18 years experience in the Careers sector. She is a co-founder of Scientific Staffing Solutions, a successful life science recruitment agency, and most recent set up Scientia Career Consulting. Scientia is a Career Management Service dedicated to the provision of a range of flexible coaching and counselling services to Scientists and Engineers.

Q & A

7.15 - 7.25pm

Buffet and Networking

7.25 - 8.25pm

Nexus is currently funded by the European Regional Development Fund and a number of Scottish organisations - see website for full details.

