The second Nexus Life Science Awards to be held in Edinburgh bring together individuals and companies from across the whole spectrum of the life sciences sector to celebrate and recognise the East of Scotland's life sciences expertise.

Throughout the evening, images submitted to Nexus by organisations involved in life sciences will be on display and attendees will be asked to indicate which images they would prefer to see in the 2011 Nexus Life-Sci Visions Calendar. In advising their selection of images, attendees will be entered into a prize draw.
